8.	The reintroduced repetitive flooding events of Millhouse Cllr John Bell gave a history to the repetitive flooding events in Millhouse. The chairman of Millhouse Flood Action group advised that the group are very limited in what they can do, due to constraints by the Environment Agency. The EA have assured the group that they have a plan. Little communication has been received recently from EA, the maintain that their plan will be completed by the end of the year. The government has allocated £m's to the region, but nothing has been spent in this area. A strategic plan by EA has been promised. John advised that the wall requires a larger aperture to prevent flooding the current design is too small. A wall has also been built across the water escape route. An extra culvert was suggested but access to the land was not given by the landowner. Cllr John Bell agreed to join Millhouse Flood Action Group to try and agree a solution.
